Wyoming Youth ChalleNGe Program hosts community presentations

CHEYENNE – The Wyoming National Guard's Youth ChalleNGe Program will host community information presentations from April 2 – 12, around Wyoming.

The public is invited to learn more about the ChalleNGe program, which is a five month residence program, designed to intervene in the life of an at-risk Wyoming youth and produce a program graduate with the values, skills, education and self-discipline necessary to succeed as an adult. Core components of the program include academics, citizenship, life-coping skills, civic service, leadership and physical fitness.

The following is a schedule of community information presentations:

April 2 – 6 p.m., Chugwater Community Center, Chugwater.

April 3 – 6 p.m., Platte County Public Library, Wheatland.

April 4 – 6 p.m., Douglas Armory, Douglas.

April 5 – 6 p.m., Eastern Wyoming College, Communication Training Center, Torrington.

April 10 – 6 p.m., Lander National Guard Armory, Lander.

April 11 – 6 p.m., Washakie County Fairgrounds, Conference Room, Worland.

April 12 – 6 p.m., Riverton Library, Riverton.

For information about the Wyoming Youth ChalleNGe Program, cadet applications, or information on becoming a mentor, visit the Web site at <http://www.ngycp.org/state/wy> or call the program at (307) 836-7500.
